It is the applicant's responsibility to respond truthfully and accurately to all questions on the application for admission. Any applicant who furnishes either false or misleading information on the application can be disqualified as an applicant for admission. If the CIA accepts the applicant and subsequently discovers that false or misleading information was furnished on the application, the CIA may terminate the student's privilege to continue his or her education at the college without reimbursement at the established CIA rate.

I have read the terms and conditions of acceptance and agree that if accepted and registered, I will abide by them. I understand that it is my responsibility to forward necessary application materials to complete my file for review and that I have an ongoing obligation, prior to enrollment, to inform the Admissions Department in writing of any changes of information regarding my file or this application. I understand that this application and all supporting materials become the property of the CIA once submitted and will not be returned, and that I agree to be contacted by the CIA via phone or e-mail.
